

Committee/Board Application Form

PART 1

If you are interested in sitting on the Town's Sports and Achievement Recognition Committee, please return this application form or submit a letter including your name, address, phone number, email to the Town Office.

Opportunity: Sports and Achievement Recognition Committee Member

The Sports and Achievement Recognition Committee is currently accepting applications for members.

As a member of this new committee, you will help establish committee processes relating to the recognition of exceptional achievements by Raymondites, with a focus on athletic achievements. We are looking for people who can work collaboratively with committee members and Council, people who understand Raymond's tradition of excellence, and above all, proud Raymondites who love this community!

Initially, members will be required to meet monthly to establish committee processes and functions, with meetings expected to occur bi-monthly or quarterly thereafter.
